USD LAW ALUMNI ASSOCIATION EXPANDS BOARD AND ELECTS NEW DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The University of San Diego Law Alumni Association Board elected a new board of directors whose terms begin September 1, 1990. The Nominations Committee who recruited the board included Craig Higgs '69 of Higgs, Fletcher and Mack; Frederick Schenk '78 of Casey, Gerry; Ernesto Grijalva '84, an international law attorney practicing in Mission Valley; Edward Arledge, partner in the La Jolla office of Luce, Forward, Hamilton & Scripps and Sheryl King '86 of Coughlan, Semmer and Lipman.

The board recently completed a long range planning process to review its communication, programming and structure. The board has expanded to 19 alumni members, one faculty member and one student member with the possibility of expanding to 25 with the addition of regional representatives.

The board will be headed this year by six-year board member Randall W. Magnuson '79. The first function for the new board members will be a dinner hosted by President Magnuson and Dean Kristine Strachan. Dean Strachan referred to the newly elected board as "a dynamic and diverse group of USD alumni who bring enthusiasm, knowledge and energy to the board."
